

TIM SULLIVAN MEMORIAL AWARD

ELIGIBILITY

- Nominee must be a member of the Indiana Environmental Health Association.
- Nominee must have been engaged actively in the field of food protection for two or more years.
- Nominee must be dedicated, enthusiastic, fair, and display considerable knowledge of the field of food protection.
- Nominee shall have been significant meritorious contribution(s) and achievements in the field of food protection within the past five (5) years. Such contribution(s) must have been significantly outstanding in improving and protecting the public health and welfare.
- Nominee shall have made a significant contribution(s) to the advancement of the Indiana Environmental Health Association.

AWARD

An appropriate plaque shall be presented to the Tim Sullivan Memorial Award recipient at the IEHA Annual Fall Educational Conference awards banquet.

The plaque shall be inscribed as follows:

NAME: _____

Tim Sullivan Memorial Award
Indiana Environmental Health Association
For Outstanding Service in Food Protection
Year: _____

(An impression of Mr. Sullivan is affixed to the plaque.)

*The award may be presented posthumously within one year of death.