There may be an opportunity to provide the REHS exam on Sunday. He is updating the sponsor, exhibitor and advertiser forms. There will be a new sponsor option of $1,500 for registration and stipend for poster presenters.

OLD BUSINESS

There was discussion on who should have admin rights to the website. The Board agreed that the President, Treasurer, Committee Chairs and one member from each Chapter should have admin rights. Margaret will take care of this.

Patty requested that the Officers have a conference call with the Insurance Agent to understand the policies. Tami is scheduling the call in February.

Patty Nocek proposed the Association have a “business” Facebook Page. Admin rights would go to Patty Nocek, Ann Klute, Jennifer Warner and Tami Barrett. There was discussion about how to police the page to make sure appropriate information is being displayed and shared. Mike Sutton stated that a plan needs to be laid out to keep it policed. Patty will draft the plan/policy for Board approval. Items to be posted would need to be approved by the admins. Patty suggested a demo of the proposed Facebook page at the January meeting. Mike tabled the vote until after the demo. The demo was not ready for the January meeting so it will be done at the March meeting.

NEW BUSINESS

Tami reported that the Bulk Mail account has been closed out and a refund of $575.73 was given to Gretchen. This refund will be reflected in the budget.

Patty Nocek reminded Chapter Reps that their participation on the Board is very important so they can report back to their respective Chapters.

Patty also reported that roll call votes will begin at the March meeting.
